

PAMELA N. ZETTERBERG, ESQUIRE

OF COUNSEL

As of March 2020, Attorney Zetterberg joined Rust Law, LLC to serve on an Of Counsel basis to assist with the clients in the focus areas of estate planning and administration.

Pamela Zetterberg attended The College of New Jersey on full scholarship and graduated Magna Cum Laude. She earned her law degree from Rutgers Law School-Camden, and is licensed in both New Jersey and Pennsylvania, as well admitted to practice in six federal courts. At Rutgers she received the Gleicher Award for Outstanding Achievement in Elder Law, was an officer of both the Student Bar and Hispanic Law Associations, and an Environmental Law Research Assistant. Mrs. Zetterberg also studied international law in Madrid, Spain as part of the College of William and Mary's Marshall Whythe School of Law. She was a judicial law clerk to the Hon. Lee B. Laskin in New Jersey Superior Court.

Before arriving at Rust Law, LLC, she worked as an associate at a national class action firm in the Philadelphia area, representing investors and consumers injured by a wide range of financial misconduct, including securities and antitrust violations, and consumer fraud. She serves an important role to Attorney Rust and the firm's clients.
